

Flocks of the Future

APPLICATION FORM

Name _____

Address _____

D.O.B. _____ Flock Number _____ Phone Number _____

Please state your current education or occupation: _____

ANSWER ALL 3 QUESTIONS BELOW:

Why should you be selected to win the mini flock?

What sustainability measures will you adopt if you win?

What can Irish Country Meats do to support young sheep farmers?

Terms & Conditions

- Applicants must be establishing a new flock or developing their own flock on the home farm and must have access to a valid flock number
- Applicants must be aged over 16 and under 25
- The final 10 applicants will undergo an on farm visit conducted by the ICM team prior to final selection
- A 5 star rated ram will be purchased through the Sheep Ireland sale
- Any lambs born from the flock must be processed at an Irish Country Meats facility
- Participants must be Bord Bia Quality Assured, or willing to become Quality Assured
- Participants are required to share regular photo and video updates on progress with the flock
- Participants must attend all events associated with the programme
- The flock must remain on the home farm for a minimum of three years

I agree to the Competition Terms & Conditions

Signed _____

Print Name _____

Date _____

HOW TO ENTER

- Submit a 3 – 5 minute video presentation showcasing your farm and addressing the three questions from the application form
- Upload your video to YouTube as an unlisted video and email the video link along with your completed application form to flocksofthefuture@irishcountrymeats.com

For more information, please see programme leaflet or contact Lauren Nolan.

Email: lauren.nolan@irishcountrymeats.com
Phone: 087 716 8352